JUNE WEDDING

* Miss Ida May Brown Becomes
 * Bride of Mr. Otto G. Walz. *

In the St. Rose Catholic church on Tuesday morning, June 15, at 9:30 o'clock, Miss Ida May Brown, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian H. Brown, was married to Mr. Otto George Walz, of Hawesville, and Douglas, Wyoming. The church altar was prettily decorated with potted plants, ferns, and pink and white spring flowers.

The solemn nuptial high mass with the ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Father J. S. Henry, pastor of St. Rose, Rev. Father J. F. Knue, of McQuady, and Rev. J. J. Abell, of Bethlehem College, Elizabethtown. Rev. Father Meyring and Father Oendhal rendered the wedding music.

Miss Celestia Brown, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Miss Dessie Brown, another sister of the bride, and Miss Lena Walz were bridesmaids. The flower girls were Misses Regina Popham, Katherine and Josephine Brown, and the ring bearer was Master Isadore Brown, who with his partner Master Celestine Hagman, served as acolytes at the altar. The best man was Mr. William Walz, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Messrs. Carl Hagman, Harold Hagman, Victor Walz and Herbert Powers.

The bride, who entered with her father by whom she was given in marriage, wore a gown of white satin and georgette. The bodice was made with a square neck and a short train falling from the shoulders. Her veil was adorned with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she held a bouquet of bride's roses.

The maid of honor's gown was of pale green georgette trimmed in ruffles, and with this she wore a white georgette hat and carried a loose arm bouquet of pink Ophelia roses. The bridesmaids were attired in simple white frocks with white organdie hats and carried Ophelia roses. The little flower girls had on crisp white frocks and carried baskets of Joseph's lilies and field daisies. The ring bearer who carried the wedding ring on a white satin pillow, wore a white wash suit as did his partner.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents for the members of the bridal party.

Mr. and Mrs. Walz left for a short wedding trip after which they will return here to remain a few days before going to their home in Douglas, Wyoming.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walz, Miss Lena Walz, Victor Walz and Joe Walz, of Hawesville; Mr. Wm. Walz, of Henderson, Miss Lena Kelly, Mrs. Francis Friel and children, Misses Senada, Ruth, Alice and Agnes Powers, Herbert Powers and Miss Anna Zuely, of Hawesville; Mrs. Henry Moss, Misses Emma and Cecilia Hagman and Celestine Hagman, Skillman; Miss Anita Mudde and Mr. Alfred Mudde, of Tell City.

Mrs. Walz Gives a Shower For June Bride.

Mrs. E. M. Wedding was hostess on Tuesday evening of last week to a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss May Brown whose marriage to Mr. Otto G. Walz took place yesterday.

Yellow and white were used in the decorations, and the same color scheme was carried out in the ices. A large wedding bell held the shower of gifts for the bride. Mrs. Wedding extended her invitations to Misses May, Celestia and Dessie Brown, Mary Joe Mattingly, Margaret Ashby, and Mary Elder. Misses Alice and Celia Hagman, of Skillman, and Miss Lena Walz, of Hawesville.

Miss Ruth Matheny and Casper Gregory Married.

Miss Ruth Matheny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milt Matheny, and Mr. H. Casper Gregory, were married in Louisville, Saturday afternoon, June 11, in the parlors of the Rev. S. J. Cannon.

JANITOR GETS $300 A DAY

Oil Well Brings Sudden Wealth to Tulsa (Okla.) Man.

Last week Robert R. Runyan was a janitor in Tulsa, Okla., drawing the usual stipend paid a janitor. Today he is still a janitor, but with his family he is drawing $300 a day from a half interest in an oil well spouting 400 barrels a day in the Wichita Falls (Tex.) district.

"I would rather have my job than an oil well," Mr. Runyan told friends who were congratulating him on suddenly breaking into the "get-rich class."

PAINT AND POWDER.

If mothers can't do anything to stop the powder and paint craze, why not let brothers try their hand at it? Denver, Colo., high school boys have denounced the follies of girl students who "doll themselves up" in drug store complexes and issued a warning that girls who appear in classroom attired like chorus beauties will be ostracized from social functions. Little in the way of correction can be expected of mothers so long as many of them are victims of the same habit. A feeling of pity naturally arises when women of sixty try to
